

ABOUT THE BLOGGERS

Jason and Jeni will always be fat kids at heart, and share their love of food, treats and snacks with the world (as long as they get the first bite). Jason's sweet tooth gets the best of him, while the salty snacks make Jeni's mouth water. Together, they created Snack Gator and are excited to have you join "The Swamp!"

Jason hides Snickers in a shoe box under his bed. But he won't admit to it. Jeni will strategically steal french fries from your plate, and feels no guilt.

Here at Snack Gator, you'll find reviews of the latest snack products on the market, see what's been spotted on shelves at your favorite stores, get current news of exciting new products coming soon and much more!
